

Los Angeles Non-Profits

(This list was compiled by sorting through and pulling from the organizations that Fire Aid donated to in the wake of the fires. We adjusted and then added to that list. Please use this list as a starting place. Your selected non-profit does not have to be listed here.)

| Organization | Description | Website |
|--|---|---|
| NATIVE PLANTS, NATURE, WILDLIFE, AND ANIMALS | | |
| Best Friends Animal Society — Los Angeles chapter | "We absolutely love animals — and we think humans are pretty swell, too. That's why we've got people around the country working to make the world a kinder and more compassionate place." | https://bestfriends.org/los-angeles |
| California Wildlife Center | "California Wildlife Center takes responsibility for the protection of native wildlife through rehabilitation, education, and conservation. It is dedicated to the rescue and rehabilitation of native California species, who otherwise would be left to suffer from the effects of human encroachment, habitat destruction and environmental damage." | https://cawildlife.org/ |
| California Local Conservation Corps Foundation (CLCCF) | "If California is to meet its ambitious climate goals, we need to educate and train the next generation of stewards of our environment. The state's local conservation corps work to do just that. With a network of 14 community-based organizations across the state, we provide young adults (ages 18-26) with paid on-the-job training, career, and educational pathways while conserving the environment and giving back to the communities we serve." | https://www.localcorpsfoundation.org/ |
| Centre for Applied Ecological Remediation | "Our mission is to advance research and application of ecological remediation to equitably address pollution, promote public health, provide education and workforce development, and build climate resilience." | https://caer.earth/ |
| Friends of the Los Angeles River | "We build capacity for communities, students, and future leaders to advocate for nature, climate, and equity on the Los Angeles River." | https://folar.org/ |

| LA Conservation Corps | "We create equitable opportunities for young people to build resilience in themselves, their communities and the environment through a program of work, education and support." | https://www.lacorps.org/ |
| Los Angeles Audubon Society | "We specifically protect birds and their habitats, speaking out against legislation that threatens these based on scientific evidence. We also advocate for conservation strategies that will preserve natural open space and encourage bird and wildlife-friendly designs of the urban built environment." | https://www.laaudubon.org/ |
| Pasadena Humane | "Pasadena Humane is more than an animal shelter; we are a community-supported animal resource center providing compassion and care for all animals. Since 1903, Pasadena Humane has offered lifesaving programs and services for animals and the people who love them in the Greater Los Angeles Area." | https://pasadenahumane.org/ |
| Samo Fund (Santa Monica Mountains Fund) | "SANTA MONICA MOUNTAINS FUND works to protect and encourage appreciation and understanding of the Santa Monica Mountains National Recreation Area. The Fund advances its mission by supporting the National Park Service and California State Parks in areas such as education, scientific research, facility improvements, public engagement, environmental stewardship, and philanthropic initiatives." | https://samofund.org/ |

|---|--|---|
| Tail Town Cats | "Our mission is to help save cats from high-kill shelters, the streets, or situations of harm or neglect. We prepare our adopters for years of health, love, and success with their new furry family members, while educating the public and our community on the value of building positive relationships with animals." | https://www.tailtowncats.com/ |
| Theodore Payne Foundation | "Theodore Payne Foundation inspires and educates Southern Californians about the beauty and ecological benefits of California native plant landscapes." | https://theodorepayne.org/ |
| Tree People | "Trees need People. People need Trees... TreePeople's mission is to inspire, engage, and support people to take personal responsibility for the environment, making it safe, healthy, fun, and sustainable." | https://treepeople.org/ |
| ARTIST SUPPORT | | |
| Armory Center for the Arts | "We present exhibitions by forward-thinking contemporary artists and provide artist-led education programs for children, teens, and adults. Guided by a mission to nurture our community and its young people by creating, learning, and presenting art to advance equity and social justice, we envision joyful, healthy, and equitable communities shaped by imagination, creativity, and diverse voices." | https://www.armoryarts.org/ |
| LA Commons | "LA Commons engages communities in the creation of public art that tells their unique stories and serves as the basis for dialogue, interaction and a shared understanding of Los Angeles." | https://www.lacommons.org/ |
| RESTORATION OF COMMUNITY RECREATIONAL SPACES | | |
| Altadena Community Garden | "The Altadena Community Garden is both a space (the Garden itself), and the group of people that runs it (the self-supporting non-profit organization) in partnership with the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation (LACDPR). The Garden is a space of two and one-half acres divided into some 82 garden plots, along with a large common area that includes a parking area, large deck, and storage sheds." | https://www.altadenacommunitygarden.com/ |
| Library Foundation of Los Angeles | "The Library Foundation of Los Angeles provides critical support to the Los Angeles Public Library resulting in free programs, resources, and services available to the millions of adults, children, and youth in Los Angeles.
